MINISTERIO
AMOR EN LA
CALLE

Bulletin January to April 2015

We begin with discipleships in the Greater Metropolitan Area as well as in Pococí. In Coronado, where we assist the population from the Greater Metropolitan Area, we are using two awnings for the first time in order to better serve and accommodate the children.

The adolescents in both shelters begin their technical vocational training with the annual tourism course and the robotics course.

Additionally the young men and women prepare for the Ministry of Public Education's first bi-annual exams in 2015.

Jesus Christ came "To proclaim the year of The Lord's favor" Luke 4:19

2015 has been an appropriate and opportune time to remember Jesus', the Savior of the Earth's, mission that He came to the Earth to fulfill. Even though His mission is expansive and encompasses everything in creation to be restored, in the book of Luke we are shown that he came to:

Bring good news to the poor.

Heal those with a broken heart.

Declare freedom for those held captive.

Give sight to the blind.

Set free the oppressed.

Proclaim the year of The Lord's favor.

How greatly do the poor, those with a broken heart, the captive, the blind, the oppressed and the helpless, need to hear the preaching of this year of The Lord's favor, just as men and women of faith need to hear it.

This year, or time of God's Grace for humanity, serves as a reminder for us during a time in which global reports and news are discouraging, in which the human reaction to life's circumstances reveals human nature as illogical and insensitive, a time in which the innocent live at greater risk of being assaulted and abused and are living with less love and care, a time in which the elderly are abandoned and looked down on, and mothers and fathers find it more and more difficult to fulfill their obligations.

A time in which technology entered the home and remained in people's hands to keep them absorbed and hypnotized, making fewer connections, sacrificing the wealth that is spending time together, laughing, thinking and living. Those that have more find themselves with less; a time in which those who have the power in their hands and the duty to think about the entire nation have become conceited, attracted by selfishness and vanity.

People walk without knowing their destination, living a life without purpose. Childhood and adolescence is finding itself without principles or values to build a life on, to build a future on, because He cannot teach or give to those that do not accept Him. The world thinks that despite all this they can continue turning their backs on God, not valuing His words about life, refusing to receive that which He sent to us to help us, to save us and to give us an abundant life here on earth and in eternity when we leave this world.

Those of us that know the significance of this year of The Lord's favor, let's preach it, let's speak of Him always, and let's not leave out anyone, big or small, just or wrongful, good or bad, rich or poor, here or there.

This message is urgent for the earth's inhabitants. All of creation cries to hear it.

Beginning 2015 with gratitude for God and everyone that supports us.

We began in this way, meeting in work teams to consecrate the new year, to evaluate the current path and to ask for divine guidance for the next year.
